- a) Demand draft on a scheduled commercial bank in India, drawn in favor of the designated officer of the purchase organization and payable at a place as indicated by the purchaser in the Schedule of Requirements.
- b) A bank guarantee issued by a scheduled commercial bank in India or a bank abroad, duly confirmed by a scheduled commercial bank in India in the form provided in the bidding documents under section VII/2 and valid for 45 days beyond the validity of the bid.
- c) Performance security shall not bear any interest for any period whatsoever.

15.4 Any bid from a bidder, not secured in accordance with ITB clauses 15.1 and 15.3 will be summarily by the purchaser, as non-responsive, pursuant to ITB clause 24.

15.5 Unsuccessful bidders, bid security will be discharged/returned as promptly as possible after the expiration of bid validity prescribed by the purchaser, pursuant to ITB clause 16, but, barring any unforeseen circumstances, not later than 45 days of the award of contract.

15.6 The successful bidder's bid security will be discharged/returned upon the bidder, signing and accepting the contract pursuant ITB clause 33 and furnishing the performance security, pursuant to ITB clause 34.

15.7 The bid security may be forfeited:

- a if a bidder :
 - i withdraws its bid or impairs or derogates from the bid in any respect during the period of bid validity specified by the bidder on the bid form; or
 - ii does not accept the correction of errors pursuant to ITB clause 24.2
- b in the case of successful bidder, if the bidder fails:
 - i to accept and sign the contract in accordance with ITB clause 33; or ii to furnish performance security in accordance with ITB clause 34.

16 Period of validity of bids

16.1 Bids shall remain valid for acceptance for 90 (ninety) days after the date of bid submission prescribed by the purchaser, pursuant to ITB clause 19. A bid valid for a shorter period shall be rejected by the purchaser as non-responsive.

16.2 In exceptional circumstances, the purchaser may solicit the bidder's consent to extension of the period of bid validity up to a specified period. The request and the response thereto shall be made in writing (or by facsimile or cable or telex, which will be followed by a signed confirmatory copy simultaneously) The bid security provided under ITB clause 15 shall also be suitably extended. A bidder may refuse the request without forfeiting its bid security. Heave, a bidder agreeing to the request will not be required nor permitted to modify its bid.

16.3 If the date up to which the bid is to remain valid happens to be a closed holiday for the purchaser, the bid shall automatically remain valid up to the next working day of that organization.

17 Format and signing of bid.

17.1 The bidder shall prepare two copies of the bid, clearly making "Original Bid" and "Duplicate copy of Bid" respectively. In the event of any discrepancy between them, the original shall govern.

17.2 The original and the copy of the bid shall be typed or written in indelible ink and shall be signed by the bidder or a person or persons duly authorized to bind the bidder to the contract. All pages of the bid, except for unlamented printed literature, shall be initialed by the person or persons signing the bid.

17.3 Any interlineations, erasures or overwriting in the bid shall be valid only if they are initialed by the person or persons signing the bid.

17.4 The front page of the bidding documents, containing the signature with date of the official (of the purchase organization) selling/dispatching the documents and the seal of that office must be returned in original by the bidder along with original copy of the bid, failing which the bid is liable to be ignored.

D. SUBMISSION OF BIDS

18 Sealing and marking of bids

18.1 The bidder shall seal the original and the duplicate copy of the bid in separate envelopes, duly marking the envelopes as “Original” and “Duplicate” respectively. These envelopes shall then be sealed in an outer envelope. (In case more than two copies are required as per specific stipulation in the Schedule of Requirements, the copies of the bids shall be marked accordingly, like “Original”, “Duplicate”, “Triplicate” and so on. Each copy of the bid shall be sealed in a separate envelope and these envelopes shall then be sealed in another envelope).

18.2 The inner and outer envelopes shall be:

- a) addressed to the purchaser at the address given in the Schedule of Requirements.
- b) bear the invitation for bids (IFB) number and the words “DO NOT OPEN BEFORE*.....” (*The time and date of bid opening, as specified in the Bid Data Sheet shall be indicated here).

18.3 Each inner envelope shall indicate the name and address of the bidder to enable the bid to be returned unopened in case it is declared “Late” or if the invitation of bid (IFB) is cancelled.

18.4 If the outer envelope is not sealed and marked as required by ITB clause 18.2, the purchaser will not assume any responsibility for the bid’s misplacement or premature opening

18.5 Bids sent by Telegram, Telex, cable or facsimile are not acceptable and will be rejected.

19 Deadline for submission of bids

19.1 Bids must be received by the purchaser at the address specified under ITB clause 18.2 not later than the time and date specified in the Schedule of requirements and the purchaser will provide a receipt (inter alia containing time and date of receipt) for the same. If that specified date happens to be a closed holiday for the purchaser, the bids will be received up to the appointed time on the next working day. If the Schedule of Requirements provides for receipt of bids through “tender box” the bids shall be submitted accordingly as per the instruction given in the Schedule of Requirements.

19.2 The purchaser may, at its discretion, extend this deadline for the submission of bids by amending the bidding documents in accordance with ITB clause 6, in which case all rights and obligations of the purchaser and bidder previously subject to the deadline will thereafter be subject to the deadline as extended.

20 Late bids

20.1 Any bid received by the purchaser after the deadline for submission of bid prescribed by the purchaser, pursuant to ITB clause 19, will be rejected and/or returned unopened to the bidder.

21 Modification and withdrawal of bids

21.1 The bidder may modify or withdraw its bid after submitting the same, provided that written notice of the modification or withdrawal is received by the purchaser prior to the deadline prescribed for submission of bids.

21.2 The bidder's modification or withdrawal notice shall be prepared, sealed, marked and dispatched in accordance with the provision of ITB clause 18. A withdrawal notice may also be sent by telex or cable or facsimile, but the same must be followed by a signed confirmation copy, postmarked not later than the deadline for submission of bids.

21.3 No bid may be modified subsequent to the deadline for submission of bids.

21.4 No bid may be withdrawn in the interval between the deadline for submission of bids and the expiration of the period of bid validity specified by the bidder in the bid form. Withdrawal of a bid during this interval may result in forfeiture of the Bidder's bid security pursuant to ITB clause 15.7.

E. BID OPENING AND BID EVALUATION

22 Opening of bids by purchaser

22.1 The purchaser will open the bids in the presence of bidder's representatives, who choose to attend, at the time, date and the place specified in the Schedule of Requirements.

If the specified date of bid opening is declared a holiday for the purchaser, the bids shall be opened at the appointed time and location on the next working day.

22.2 The representative of a bidder, who intends to attend the bid opening, shall bring with him/her to attend the bid opening. In the absence of such a letter of authority, the representative, (s) will not be allowed to enter and attend the bid opening. The bidders representatives, who attend the bid opening, shall sign a register (which will be provided by the purchaser) evidencing their attendance.

22.3 The bidder's name, technical specifications of the good offered, bid prices, discounts, the presence or absence of the requisite bid security and such other details as the purchaser, at its discretion, may consider appropriate will be announced at the bid opening.

22.4 The purchaser will prepare appropriate minutes of the bid opening for its official record.

23 Clarification of bids

23.1 During scrutiny and evaluation of bids, the purchaser may, at its discretion, ask a bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing and no change in the price or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered or permitted.

24 Preliminary examination of bids – unresponsive, substantially responsive & responsive bids

24.1 The purchaser will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether the required bid validity is available, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required bid security has been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order. While examining the bids, the purchaser will also keep in view the requirements as per ITB Clause 8.

24.2 Arithmetical errors, if any, in a bid will be rectified if the following basis. If there is discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail and the total price shall be corrected accordingly. If the supplier does not accept the correction of such errors, its bid will be rejected.

24.3 Prior to the detailed evaluation pursuant to ITB clause 26, the purchaser will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bidding documents. A substantially responsive bid is one which conforms to all the requirements and terms & conditions of the bidding documents, including the specification and technical parameters of the goods as projected in the bidding document, without material deviations. Deviations from or reservations to the bidding documents critical provisions, such as those concerning bid validity, technical specification, performance security, warranty obligations, Force Majeure, taxes & duties and applicable law (governing the contract) will be deemed to be material deviations. Bids from an agent without proper authorization from the manufacturer as per ITB clause 13.2 (a), shall be treated as non-responsive.

The purchaser's determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

24.4 The purchaser may waive any minor infirmity, non-conformity or irregularity in a bid, which does not constitute a material deviation, provided such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relation ranking of any bidder.

24.5 The conclusion drawn by the purchaser as to the substantial responsiveness or other wise of a bid of consideration of a minor infirmity or non-conformity or irregularity in a bid is final.

24.6 If a bid is determined as not substantially responsive, it will be rejected by the purchaser and may not subsequently be made responsive by the bidder by correction of the non-conformity.

25 Conversion to single currency

25.1 To facilitate evaluation and comparison of bids, the purchaser will convert all bid prices expressed in the amount in various currencies in which the bid price are payable, to Indian rupees at the BC selling market rate of exchange established by the Stat Bank of India for similar transactions as on the date of bid opening.

26 Evaluation and comparison of bids

26.1 The purchaser will evaluate and compare the bids, which have been determined to be substantially responsive, pursuant to ITB clause 24 for each schedule separately. The bid for a schedule will not be considered if the complete requirements covered in the schedule is not included in the bid. However, as stated in ITB clause 10, bidders are allowed the option to bid for any one or more schedule and to offer discounts for combined schedules. These discounts will be take into account in the evaluation of the bids so as to determine the bid or combination of bids offering the lowest evaluated cost for the purchaser in deciding award(s) for each schedule.

26.2 The comparison of CIP destination basis, duly delivered and commissioned (as the case may be) at the destination.

- 26.3 The purchaser's evaluation of a bid will include and take into account, in addition to bid price of the incidental services:
- a in the case of good manufactured in India or good of foreign origin already located in India, sales tax & other similar taxes and excise duty & other similar duties, which will be payable on the goods if a contract is awarded to the bidder; and
 - b in the case of goods of foreign origin offered from abroad, custom duties and other similar import duties/taxes, which will be payable on the goods if the contract is awarded to the bidder.
- 26.4 The purchaser's evaluation of bid will also take into account the following factors in the manner and to the extent specified in the Schedule of Requirements and amplified in ITB clause 26.5.
- a cost of inland transportation, insurance and other costs within India incidental to delivery of the good to their final destination as stipulated in the Schedule of Requirements.
 - b delivery schedule offered in the bid,
 - c the cost of components, spare part and service,
 - d the availability of spare part and after-sale service in India for the goods offered in the bid.
 - e the projected operating and maintenance cost during the life of the equipment.
 - f specific additional criteria.
- 26.5 Pursuant to clause 26.4, following evaluation methods, will be followed:
- a Inland transportation, insurance and incidentals: Bidder shall quote separately for inland transportation, insurance and other incidentals for delivery of goods to the required destination as already indicated in the Schedule of Requirements. These costs, incurred in India, shall be quoted in India currency. Such costs will be added by the purchaser to the EXW/CIF/CIP bid price.
 - b The purchaser requires that the goods mentioned in the 'Schedule of Requirements' shall be delivered at the destination within the time schedule specified therein. As and if necessary, the estimated time of arrival of goods from ex-works/port of entry to the destination will be calculated by the purchaser for each bid after allowing for reasonable transportation time based on the published tariff of Railway, appropriate Road Transport Agencies, etc. Bids offering deliveries (as worked out on above lines), which are later than the specified delivery but within the allowable range (as specified in the Schedule of Requirements) will be adjusted during the evaluation by adding a factor to the percentage specified in the schedule of Requirements, to the EXW/CIF/CIP price per week of variation from the specified delivery schedule.

c Cost of components and spare part:

i) the list of items and quantities of major assemblies, components and selected spare part, likely to be required during the initial period of operation as specified in the schedule of Requirement, is annexed to the Technical Specification. The total cost of these items, at the unit prices quoted in each bid, will be added to the bid price.

or

ii) the purchaser will draw up a list of high usage and high value items of components and spare parts, along with the estimated quantities of usage in the initial period of operation as indicated in the Schedule of Requirements. The total cost of these items and quantities will be computed from the corresponding unit price quoted by the bidder and added to the bid price.

iii) the purchaser will estimate the cost of spare parts usage in the initial period of operation specified in the Schedule of Requirements, based on the information furnished by each bidder, as well as on the past experience of the purchaser or other purchasers in similar situations. Such cost shall be added in the bid price for evaluation.

d Availability of spare parts and after sales services facilities in India:

The cost to the purchaser of establishing the required service facilities and parts inventories, as outlined in the Schedule of Requirements or elsewhere in the bidding documents, if quoted separately, shall be added to the bid price.

e The projected operation and maintenance cost during the life of the equipment:

These costs, which form a major portion of the life cycle of the equipment, will be evaluated in accordance with the criteria specified in the Schedule of Requirements and/or in the Technical Specifications.

f Specific additional criteria:

Other specific additional criteria to be considered in the bid evaluation and the corresponding evaluation method shall be incorporated in the Schedule of Requirements and/or in the Technical Specifications.

27 Bidder's capability to perform the contract

27.1 The purchaser will determine to its satisfaction the bidder, which is selected as having submitted the lowest evaluated responsive bid, is qualified and prime facie capable to perform contract satisfactorily.

27.2 The determination will take into account the bidder's financial, technical, and production capabilities for fulfilling all the requirements of the purchase as specified in the bidding documents. This exercise will be based upon the examination of the documentary evidence of the bidder's qualifications submitted by the bidder, purchaser to ITB clauses 2 and 13, as well as such other allied information as the purchaser deems necessary and appropriate.

27.3 An affirmative determination will be a prerequisite for award of the contract to the bidder. A negative determination will result in rejection of the bidder's bid, in which event the purchaser will proceed to the next lowest evaluated bid to make a similar determination of the bidder's capabilities to perform satisfactorily.

28 Purchaser's right to vary quantities at the time of award

28.1 The purchaser reserves the right at the time of awarding the contract to increase or decrease by up to 25%, the quantity of goods and services specified in the Schedule of Requirements without any change in the unit price or other term and conditions.

29 Contracting the purchaser

29.1 From the time of the bid opening to the time of awarding the contract, if a bidder wishes to contract the purchaser on any matter related to the bid, it should do so in writing.

29.2 Any effort by a bidder to influence the purchaser in the purchaser's decision on bid evaluation or other suitable administrative action against the bidder, as deemed fit by the purchaser.

F. AWARD OF CONTRACT

30 Award criteria

30.1 subject to ITB clause 28, the purchaser will award the contract to the successful bidder whose bid has been determined as the lowest evaluated bid, provided further that the bidder is determined to be qualified and prime facie capable to perform the contract satisfactorily.

31 Purchaser's right to accept any bid and to reject any or all bids

25.1 Notwithstanding the provisions of GCC clauses 22,23 and 24, the supplier shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security , liquidated damages or termination for default, if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.

25.2 For purposes of this clause, “Force Majeure” means an event beyond the control of the supplier and not involving the supplier’s fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the purchaser in its sovereign capacity , wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions and freight embargoes.

25.3 If a Force Majeure situation arises, the supplier shall promptly notify the purchaser in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof . Unless otherwise directed by the purchaser in writing, the supplier shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

26 Termination for insolvency

26.1 If the supplier becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent, the purchaser may terminate the contract by giving written notice to the supplier, without any compensation to the supplier, provided, that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued and / or will accrue thereafter to the purchaser.

27 Termination for convenience

27.1 The purchaser, by written notice sent to the supplier, may terminate the contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that the termination is for the purchaser’s convenience, the extent to which performance of the supplier under the contract is terminated, and the date with effect from which such termination becomes effective.

27.2 The goods that are complete and ready for shipment within 30 (thirty) days after the supplier’s receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the purchaser at the contract terms and prices. For the remaining goods, the purchaser may elect :

- (A) to have any portion completed and delivered at the contract terms and prices; and / or
- (b) to cancel the remainder and pay to the supplier an agreed amount for partially completed goods and services and for materials and parts already procured by the supplier for fulfilling the contractual obligations.

28 Resolution of disputes

28.1 If any dispute or difference of any kind shall arise between the purchaser and the supplier in connection with or arising out of the contract, the parties shall make every effort to resolve the same amicably by mutual consultations.

28.2 If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the purchaser or the supplier may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence arbitration, as hereinafter provided, as to the matter in dispute, and no arbitration in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given.

28.3 Any dispute or difference, in respect of which a notice of intention to commence arbitration has been given in accordance with GCC sub-clause 28.2, shall be finally settled by arbitration. Arbitration may be commenced prior to or after delivery of the goods under the contract.

28.4 The dispute resolution mechanism to be applied pursuant to GCC sub clause 28.3 shall be as follows :-

- (a) In the case of a dispute or difference arising between the purchaser and the supplier relating to any matter arising out of or connected with the contract, such disputes or difference shall be settled in accordance with the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996. The arbitral tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators, one each to be appointed by the purchaser and the supplier. The third arbitrator, one each to be appointed by the purchaser and the supplier. The third arbitrator shall be chosen by the two arbitrators so appointed by the parties and shall act as presiding arbitrator. In case of failure of the two arbitrators appointed by the parties to reach upon a consensus within a period of thirty days from the appointment of the arbitrator appointed subsequently, the presiding arbitrator shall be appointed by the Indian Council of Arbitration or President of the Institution of Engineers (India)
- (b) The decision of majority of arbitrators shall be final and binding upon both the parties.
- (c) The cost and expenses of the arbitration proceeding will be paid as determined by the arbitral. Tribunal However, the expenses incurred by each parts in connection with the preparation, presentation etc. of its proceeding as also fees and expenses paid to the arbitrator appointed by such party or on its behalf shall be borne by each party itself.

28.5 However, where the value of the contract is Rs. 15 lacs (Rupees one and a half million) and below, the disputes or differences arising in it shall be referred to a sole arbitrator. The sole arbitrator shall be appointed by mutual agreement between the parties. If the parties fail to agree on the arbitrator within 30 (thirty) days from the receipt of a request by one party from the other party to so agree, the appointment shall be made upon request of a party, by the Indian Council of Arbitration or the President of the Institution of Engineers (India).

28.6 The venue of arbitration shall be the place from where the contract is issued.

29 Governing language

29.1 The contract shall be written in English language. All correspondence and other documents pertaining to the contract, which the parties exchange, shall also be written in English.

30 Applicable law

30.1 The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of India.

31 Notices

31.1 Any notice given by one party to the other pursuant to the contract shall be sent in writing or by cable, telex or facsimile and confirmed in writing to the addresses specified in the Schedule of Requirements.

31.2 A notice shall be effective when delivered or on the notice's effective date, whichever is later.

32 Taxes and duties

32.1 A foreign supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, stamp duties license fees and other such levies imposed outside India.

32.2 A local supplier shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, etc. incurred until delivery of the contracted goods to the purchaser.

32.3 Further instruction if any, shall be provided in the Schedule of Requirements.
